About

I am a skilled Front-end Developer who is striving for progress. I always passionate about front-end technologies and making the User Experience better. I have full command on HTML5, CSS3, BOOTSTRAP, React/Next JS, and WordPress and can produce optimized, clean and browser-compatible designs. I have the ability to design and develop high quality codes and then test these codes to make sure they work correctly. I also have the experience and training needed to follow and match all specification and coding standards.

Recommendations

 Tabinda Saqib Director HR at IBG Consulting	During the interview, I found Inam very professional and someone who knows his work. Later, Inam proved it right by his dedication and hard work. He is a great team player, he has my full recommendation.
 Salman Khan Regional Director Of Sales And Marketing at Innovatech Solutions	Potential and highly skilled with an astonished sense of humor
 Muhammed Ahmed Senior Manager User Interface at Tcurve	It was fantastic to work together with Inam khan, who was an efficient Senior UI/UX Developer. Proactive, energetic, and totally organized. Brilliant Senior UI/UX Developer. Loyal, insightful, and independent. Is always capable of adapting to new working environments. Very positive attitude towards work. Inam Khan will find a way to weather any storm with a smile. He learns quickly and I would have no hesitation in working with Inam khan once again in the future.
 Rabi Khan Sr. Graphic designer at ACE Digitals Pvt Ltd.	Hard working guy with professional skills, highly recommend.
 Yahya Sultan UI/UX Developer at SalSoft.	It's my pleasure to provide this letter of recommendation for Inam Ur Rehman. As sole Frontend Developer at Legendesk, I've worked closely with him over the past three months, sharing the same open office space the majority of the time. Inam showed excellent communication skills and consistently exceeded company quotas. On a personal level, he's charismatic and well-spoken, both qualities that have served him well in his role.
 Owais Jalal UI/UX Developer at 10Perls.	He is wonderful to work with, and has exceptional experience in motivation. He understands complex matters even when outside of his direct area of expertise. Inam Khan never refuses you when you ask him for help. Energetic and broad-minded Sr Executive UI/UX - that's him! Detail oriented team player. Inam Khan always maintains very good relation with co-workers and clients. He learns quickly and I would have no doubt in working with Inam Khan again in the future.
